

We've Got You Covered...

The Motion Picture & Television Fund, in collaboration with the Screen Actors Guild Foundation, has a special program that provides health insurance counseling, referrals to community resources, and partial premium subsidies to qualified individuals.

If you have:

- A current membership in the Screen Actors Guild
- Worked in the California motion picture and television industry for 3 of the last 6 years
- Lost (or will soon lose) your health insurance coverage
- Limited financial resources

You may be eligible for the Health Insurance Premium Support Program
